Instructions for Filing Articles of Organization for a Domestic L3C Limited Liability Company

Section 7-16-76 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1956, as amended

*The attached form is designed to meet minimal statutory filing requirements pursuant to the relevant statutory provision.
This form and the information provided are not substitutes for the advice and services of an attorney and/or tax specialist.*

All filings are public records under RIGL 38-2-1, et seq. This means all information is available to the public by a variety of methods including, without limitations, inspections at our office, telephone inquiries and electronically through our online database.

How to complete the form:

A low-profit limited liability company shall at all times significantly further the accomplishments of one or more charitable or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 170(c)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. section 170(c)(2)(B), or its successor, and would not have been formed but for the entity's relationship to the accomplishment of charitable or educational purposes.

1. State the name of the limited liability company. Your entity name must be distinguishable from any name on file in this office. The name must include "low-profit limited liability company," or the letters "L3C" with or without punctuation. You may check name availability on our website; however, this does not ensure the name will still be available upon filing.
2. State the name of the resident agent. The resident agent is an individual or entity that will accept all legal service for this entity. The agent must be a Rhode Island resident or entity qualified to do business in this state. A Rhode Island street address is required, NOT a P.O. Box. In addition to all legal service of process, other important correspondence from the state will be sent to this address.
3. Choose whether your company will be treated as disregarded as an entity separate from its member (single member LLC), a partnership or a corporation for federal income tax purposes. For more information about these distinctions, visit the IRS website.
4. Provide the principal address of the limited liability company. If you do not know the address yet, state "not yet determined."
5. All Rhode Island limited liability companies have a perpetual (ongoing) existence until the LLC is formally dissolved with this office. All LLCs are organized to conduct any lawful business unless a more specific purpose or duration is stated in Section 6. By completing and submitting these Articles of Organization, the entity agrees to conform to the legal obligations of the entity as indicated in RIGL 7-16-76.
6. State any additional provisions agreed upon by the members that you would like to include in the Articles of Organization. This is optional.
7. Check the box to indicate how the limited liability company will be managed. If you check the first box to indicate that the LLC will be managed by its members, DO NOT fill out the chart. If you check the second box to indicate that the LLC will be managed by one or more managers, list their names and respective addresses if known. A "Manager" or "Managers" means a person or persons designated by the members of an LLC to manage the limited liability company. A "Member" means a person with an ownership interest in an LLC with the rights and obligations specified in RIGL 7-16.
8. Check "Date received" unless you prefer that the Articles go into effect at a later date than when the form is received in this office. Any later date must be within 90 days of filing.
9. An Authorized Person MUST sign and date the form. An Authorized Person is any person designated by the members, shareholders or administrative body of the entity to sign official documents on its behalf.
