Types of Authorized Acts

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

When a signer, whose identity has been verified, declares that they have knowingly and voluntarily signed a document for the purpose stated in that document.

- COMMON TYPES OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
- › Advance Medical Directives
 - › Power of Attorney
 - › Deeds/Mortgages
 - › Waiver/Release of Claims

The emphasis, when a Justice of the Peace performs an acknowledgment, is on the free act and deed of the signer and the verification of their identity.

Acknowledgement

Signer must personally appear on the date and in the place indicated on the certificate.

STEP 1

Review the document to determine the document type and the act to be performed.

STEP 2

Identify the signer through personal knowledge or an accepted form of identification.

STEP 3

Verify that the signature on the document is the signer's, either by watching them sign the document, or if it has already been signed, by comparing the signature to the one on the signer's ID.

STEP 4

Have the signer verbally acknowledge that their signature was made competently and voluntarily.

STEP 5

Complete the certificate. Sign the certificate, print your name, write your title "Justice of the Peace," list your commission expiration date and commission ID number.

OATH OR AFFIRMATION

When a signer, whose identity has been verified, verbally promises to tell the truth by taking a solemn spoken pledge to God or a Supreme Being (oath) or made on the signer's personal honor with no reference to a higher power (affirmation).

COMMON TYPES OF OATHS OR AFFIRMATIONS

- RI Justice of the Peace Application
 - Affidavit
 - Depositions

As a Justice of the Peace you are not confirming that the statements are true – only that the person taking the oath is swearing or affirming that they are. You have no responsibility for the honesty of the individual.

Oath or Affirmation

Signer must personally appear in your presence.

STEP 1

Identify the person through personal knowledge or an accepted form of identification.

STEP 2

Administer the oath or affirmation by having the person raise their right hand and administer the oath or affirmation aloud.

STEP 3

Complete the journal entry.

Less Common Acts

ONLY JUSTICES OF THE PEACE WHO HAVE THE APPROPRIATE PROFESSIONAL TRAINING SHOULD PROCEED WITH THE ACTS LISTED BELOW

DEPOSITION OF WITNESSES

A deposition is a signed transcript of an oral statement made by an individual (the “deponent”) for use in a legal matter. Rhode Island Justices of the Peace are empowered to take depositions of witnesses to be used in the trial of any civil suit, action, petition, or proceeding in which they are not an interested party, counsel, or the attorney of either party per RIGL §9-18-18.

ISSUANCE OF SUBPOENAS

A subpoena is an order for its recipient to appear before a court. Rhode Island Justices of the Peace are empowered to issue subpoenas to witnesses in any case, civil or criminal, before any court, and in any matter before any body or person authorized by law to summon witnesses per RIGL §9 17-3. Per RIGL §8-8.2-4, Justices of the Peace are also empowered to issue subpoenas returnable before the traffic tribunal.

Documents without certificates

If your signer can tell you what act is needed, you may affix or attach an appropriate loose certificate to the document and complete it.

If your signer can't tell you what act they need, you should explain the various acts and have them determine the act they would like you to perform. If they cannot determine the act, you may refuse the request.

Do not perform an Act if...

- › The signer is not in your presence.
- › You cannot identify the signer through an accepted form of identification or if they are not personally known to you.
- › There is reason to believe that the signer does not understand the consequences of the transaction or document being notarized.
- › The signer is not acting of their own free will.
- › You are a party to or are named in the document except for the sole purpose of receiving notices relating to the document.
- › If you are named as an executor, trustee or in any fiduciary capacity unless you are an attorney licensed in RI or an employee of said attorney.

Other important considerations...

› A Justice of the Peace should not refuse to perform an act solely based on the principal's race, advanced age, gender, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, health or disability.

› A Justice of the Peace should not provide or send a signed certificate to another person with the understanding that it will be completed or attached to a document outside of the Justice of the Peace's presence.

› A Justice of the Peace should not influence a person either to enter into or avoid a transaction involving an act by the Justice of the Peace, except that the Justice of the Peace may provide advice relating to that transaction if the Justice of the Peace is duly qualified, trained or experienced in a particular industry or professional field.

› A Justice of the Peace should not execute a certificate containing information known or believed by the Justice of the Peace to be false.

› A Justice of the Peace should not affix an official signature on a certificate that is incomplete.
