Enhanced Access Fee:	In order for the State of Rhode Island to provide valuable online services to the public, it has contracted with a private vendor (RI.gov) to create a self-funded model. RI.gov is charged with creating a variety of online services without utilizing tax dollars. The enhanced access fee associated with filing UCC documents is not revenue for this office or the state's General Fund. Instead, the fee goes to RI.gov to cover the cost of creating and maintaining the service.

We appreciate your participation in our electronic filing program. However, if you do not wish to file online, you may file by mail or in person. Cash and check payments are processed at no additional charge. A small transaction fee is charged for in person Credit Card payments.
